

751

1912 Dates J-BK

Franks

CHILDERIC III, last MEROVINGIAN king, was deposed and placed in a monastery.

751

The muslims learned about the production of paper from Chinese prisoners

751

---

The Tang dynasty - external expansion carried them to the Tarim Basin before they were halted by the Arabs at the TALAS River in 751. (Northwest of Tibet and north of India)

751

---

Pepin established the Carolingian line in Frankish Kingdom

An assembly of Frankish Chieftains acclaimed the Mayor of the Palace Pepin III as King, whereupon he was solemnly anointed by St. Boniface and other bishops as King Pepin I, thus the Carolingian dynasty succeeded the decadent Merovingian.

End of MEROVINGIAN line of French kings.

Pepin the SHORT is first of the CAROLINGIAN line

751

The pope deposed CHILDERIC, king of France by a papal decree.

751 AD

Chinese papermakers were captured by the Arabs at Samarqand, and by 794 AD several state-owned paper mills operated in Bagdad

C 751

2th cen

The Law of the Lombards

547 The Byzantines allowed the Lombards to settle in the area of modern Hungary & E. Austria.

AD751

---

Battle at Talas River between Chinese and Muslims. The Muslims won decisively. From their Chinese prisoners, Arabs found out how to make paper.

751-768

---

France Carolingian Dynasty

PEPIN I King

He was Mayor of Palace 741